DRIVE PROGRESS
DELIVER VALUE

HENDRIX GENETICS swine

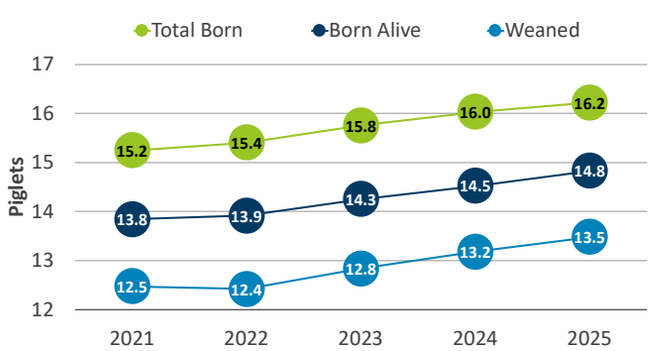
Hypor Libra Americas Benchmark

Sustainable litter characteristics

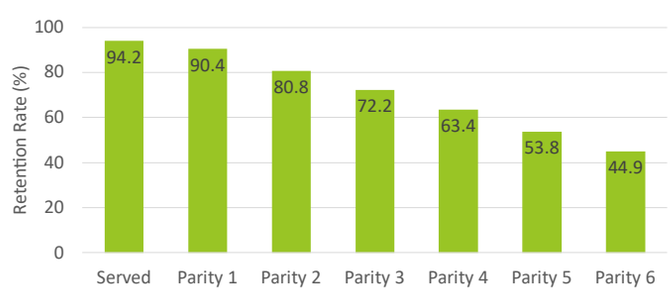
The Hypor Libra is selected to be a productive and reliable mother, giving the most value with less management. She farrows the highest quality piglets that easily become valuable finishers.

The balance between the sow's prolificacy and reproductive efficiency results in a commercial sow that produces and weans a high number of uniform piglets per year, without compromising her ability to produce the next litter.

Litter Size Progression – Top 10%



Retention Rate



Reproduction statistics 2025

117 commercial herds	Median	90th percentile
Total born per sow	15.9	16.6
Live born per sow	14.4	15.1
Weaned per sow	12.2	13.1
Piglet survival	77.8%	86.1%
Farrowing rate (adj.)	89.6%	94.8%
Parity at farrowing	3.63	3.93
Sow survival	92.2%	97.0%
Litters per mated sow/year	2.39	2.48
Weaned per mated sow/year	29.0	32.2
Weaned per sow lifetime	61.1	75.0